

ANNUAL REPORT 2015

FEDERAL PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

Federal Public Service Commission has the privilege to present before the President of Islamic Republic of Pakistan

Annual Report 2015

as required under Section 9 of the FPSC Ordinance, 1977

Chairman

Mr. President,

Pursuant to section 9 of the FPSC Ordinance, 1977, the Annual Report of the Federal Public Service Commission for 2015 is presented to the President of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan. This report gives an account of the functional performance of the Commission for the period 1st January through 31st December 2015.

Over the last 68 years, since the Federal Public Service Commission was founded, its composition, size and processes have changed, but its overall purpose has remained the same. The Commission is chartered to recruit through fair and open competitive process, a broad range of human resources to serve the Government and the people of Pakistan, effectively and efficiently.

For this purpose, the FPSC develops examination modules, conducts test and examinations for recruitment of persons to all Pakistan services, the civil services of the Federation and civil posts in connection with the affairs of the Federation in basic pay scales 16 and above and also holds examinations for promotion for such posts as the Federal Government may, from time to time, specify. Complaints/review petitions of the aggrieved candidates, if any, are also entertained and addressed. The Commission carries out all recruitments on the principles enshrined in Article 27 of the Constitution and the reservation of seats prescribed by the Government from time to time.

In this work, the Commission acts as an independent regulator. It works with Ministries/ Divisions/ Departments to renovate and professionalize recruitment processes, both as regulator and in support of their work. The statutory responsibilities of the Commission require it to advise the President on matters relating to qualifications and methods of recruitment for BS-16 and above. As the Commission processes recruitment for these posts within various Ministries/Divisions/Departments, sometimes, those responsibilities require it to stand up and speak up as an independent regulator. This report underscores the challenges faced by the Commission in this regard. The report not only identifies challenges related to the recruitment but also captures the reform initiatives.

Like each year, goals and targets were set for Year 2015. Some of the key goals and targets were to improve selection criteria, critically examine, review and timeline the procedures and processes for recruitment, enhance usage of information technology and to reduce delays.

The year's biggest achievement has, perhaps, been the 100% online application invitation and processing. As has been explained in the report until last year data entry and subsequent proof reading consumed 2 to 3 months to process and therefore the need for an automated system for processing the applications was felt, finally achieved this year. It is an important development for the Commission which will be of great benefit both for the Commission as well the aspirants.

Another important milestone was reforms in CSS Competitive Examination System. The Commission conducted an extensive and intensive round of discussions with various stakeholders including HEC designated panel of subject specialists for revision of syllabi for the CSS competitive examination. The scheme and syllabi was last revised in 1981. In view of the fast changing environment and the consequent challenges, the need to reform was strongly felt. The new scheme for competitive examination 2016 and onwards included six new subjects Anthropology, Criminology, Environmental Sciences, Gender Studies, Governance & Public Policy, Town Planning & Urban Management and revision of marks of 17 optional subjects and re-grouping of optional subjects to provide level playing field to all candidates.

With a view to bring qualitative improvement in general (direct) recruitment for all posts in BS-16 and above in various Ministries/Divisions/Departments and to reform the ex-cadre service, the selection process was further improved through revision of syllabi and test schemes. It was meant to encourage the candidates to equip themselves with the required skills as well as knowledge and make the selection more competitive. Test schemes and syllabi for 268 recruitment cases for selection against 1864 posts in BS-16 to BS-20 were designed in 2015. It is worth mentioning that over 681940 applications were processed in one year against the aforementioned posts.

These highlights reflect a continuing increase in core workload across the board. Our Members have been involved in recruitment/ selection/ interview/ review petitions of the candidates against various posts. The Commission processed cases of recruitment against 3830 ex-cadre posts, including advertised in 2015 and carry forward cases from previous years. In 2015, 147 cases were finalized for 675 posts. The Commission interviewed 2288 candidates and made recommendations against 575 posts in BS-16 to BS-20 under general recruitment. Nominations were also made against 233 posts under CSS CE 2014 in the year 2015.

In this report, we also record the range of additional activities undertaken in support of improving the selection process as indicated in Chapters 5 and 6.

In Competitive Examination, we oversee directly and focus on the selection processes. During the year, we continued to gather data on the diversity of applications for posts at every level for statistical analysis and referencing. Under CSS CE 2014, applications to post ratio was 78. Only 2.86 percent of the candidates, who appeared, finally qualified. Out of 377 finally qualified candidates, 69% were from Punjab, 10% from Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, 9% from Sindh Rural, 5% from Sindh Urban, 3% from Balochistan, 2% from GBFATA and 2% from AJK. Out of 315 vacancies, allocations against 233(144 male & 89 female) posts/vacancies were made by the Commission. The allocation against 82 vacancies could not be made due to non-availability of qualified candidates from the respective quotas.

Similarly, 22,412 candidates applied for the Competitive Examination (CE) 2015 but only 12176 candidates appeared in the examination. The result of written part was announced on 16.10.2015 and 379 or 3.11% of total candidates qualified the written examination. Only 3.02 percent of the candidates who appeared in the examination finally qualified the examination. Applications to post ratio was 67. The Establishment Division intimated 333 vacancies to be filled through CSS Competitive Examination 2015, which were accordingly distributed amongst Merit, Provincial / Regional quotas, Women quota (10%) and Minorities quota (5%). Out of 333 vacancies, allocations against 238 (132 male or 55% & 106 females or 45%) posts/vacancies were made by the Commission. The allocation against 95 vacancies could not be made due to non-availability of qualified candidates from the respective quotas.

Final Passing Out Examinations (FPOE) for 12 services/groups and examinations for cadre and non-cadre posts were also held during 2015.

This data guided the Commission to understand better both what was happening as well as suggesting why it was happening. The report also suggests trends and contains some analysis of average age of appearing candidates in CSS, male/female ratio among successful candidates, popular choice and performance in various subjects/disciplines, comparative performance of the candidates who pass out from private, Missionary schools and Government institutions and reserved quota for the disabled and Minorities and so on. The analysis helps to ensure that the problems are clearly understood, and therefore right recommendations are made and appropriate action is taken.

As in previous years, comparative analysis based on the data of CSS results, feedback of the examiners of the Competitive Examination and Final Passing out Examinations, assessment of the candidates during the interviews/viva voce by the Commission and the impact on the civil service landscape also forms part of the report.

Observations/Findings/Recommendations:

The Commission continues to enjoy the trust and confidence of the general public in terms of competitive and merit based selection. Following are some of the observations/findings/recommendations which need immediate attention of the Government:

Promoting diversity in Civil Service:

Civil Service needs a variety of expertise and backgrounds to help solve the country's diverse needs and problems. The CE reveals that candidates who are finally selected come from various sectoral backgrounds. The Commission, therefore, continues to monitor these trends, informs the Government to take appropriate actions which could impact the future composition of the civil service.

Need for Career Counseling and incentivization of Civil Service:

There is an increasing trend for high achievers to opt for the private sector as their first career choice, primarily for fast career growth and better remuneration. There is a need to launch a country-wide career counselling program to attract and motivate the best talent towards civil service. Besides there is a need to make the service structure more incentivized. Recruitment, performance, compensation, career progression and retirement provide positive reinforcement. The civil service reforms require looking at it as one package and making it a professional service.

Improving standard of education and higher learning

The pass percentage of the candidates in CSS 2015, feedback received from the examiners on the written scripts as well as the performance of the candidates observed by the Commission in interviews indicate that the standard of education remains below par. Competencies, performance and knowledge of the candidates remain average overall. It is a candid opinion of the Commission that education both in terms of conceptual clarity, learning and instruction is deteriorating. The inadequacies/deficiencies in education system are primarily due to sub-standard school education, particularly in rural areas and need to be addressed appropriately. Enhanced efforts are needed to collaborate with Universities/institutes of higher learning and Higher Education Commission to improve the standards of instruction and learning.

Affirmative actions to promote female participation in civil service

In Competitive Examination 2015, the number of female applicants was 3754. Of the total allocated 238 candidates to various groups/services, 106 or 45% were female. Based on their good performance, female candidates qualified in written part in significant numbers and were called for interview and once interviewed, 76 were appointed on merit. Through another stream i.e. 10% reserved quota for women, another 30 candidates were allocated to various groups/services. This indicates that the Government's affirmative actions to mainstream female participation in civil service have been effective. Given such initiatives, women are likely to show a sizable number in civil service of Pakistan and an enhanced role in national development.

Issue of vacant seats

Posts under Competitive Examination remain unfilled because of non-availability of eligible candidates from respective quotas attaining the threshold. In CSS 2015, 95 seats remained vacant inclusive of the carry forward of 82 seats from year 2014.

Non availability of qualified professionals against technical posts

The Commission at times does not find qualified and suitable candidates for technical/professional posts from respective quotas. During the year 2015, nomination of candidates against 100 posts in BS 16-20 could not be made due to non-availability of qualified professionals in the specialized fields (Information Technology, Geology, Engineering, Medicine) in 65 cases. It is presumed that better qualified individuals make career choices in favor of the corporate/private sector, as it offers better remuneration and relatively better work environment.

Need for revision of Syllabi and training format of all Training Institutes

Syllabi and training format of all Training Institutes needs to be reviewed. There seems to be more thrust on academics rather than professional grooming or towards building skills for acquiring professional excellence as observed by the Examiners. The Commission is of the view that there is a dire need for a comprehensive review and realignment of the FPOE syllabi, training methodology and techniques. Training Academies also need to identify potential development needs to enhance the officer's leadership and professional competencies.

Litigation-main cause of delay in processing of cases

Litigation against various decisions has been one of the main hindrances in speedy disposal of recruitment cases. During the year, 314 fresh cases were filed in various courts. 382 cases were brought forward from the previous years. 212 cases were decided during the year. Thus, 484 cases were subjudice in different Courts of Law at the end of the year.

Observing Recruitment rules and advice of the Commission

Irregularities and deficiencies in Recruitment Rules were also noted with concern by the Commission. As it is mandatory for all Ministries/Divisions/Departments to solicit the assent of the Commission on the recruitment rules for all civil positions, the Commission received 190 cases from Government entities for approval of rules. The Commission approved 35 cases. However, 4 cases were considered unfit and 82 cases were processed to remove deficiencies in conjunction with the concerned Government entities. In 69 cases, the sponsoring Ministry/Division did not frame recruitment rules with prior approval of the Commission and the prescribed eligibility, terms and conditions of service. Such appointments not only deprive potential candidates from applying for the posts, but also promote inefficiency and incompetence in civil service. There were 10 cases in all, 7 under which irregular appointments were made without prior approval of the Commission and in 3 cases offer of appointment was delayed by the concerned Ministry/Division/Department. There is a need to re-iterate to all Ministries/ Divisions to follow the prescribed procedure for framing recruitment rules with concurrence of the Commission.

Need for revision of the recruitment rules

A set of well-defined recruitment rules is the bench mark for the whole recruitment process. The Commission has time and again observed several deficiencies in the way qualifications for various posts are spelled out by sponsoring Ministry/Department. The Commission has also repeatedly underscored the need for revision of the recruitment rules which in many cases dates back to 1974. This affects the otherwise qualified applicants holding a degree with a different title to apply as well as for the Selection Committee in selecting the right candidate. A major portion of 378 personal hearings pertained to this specific issue i.e. claim of the candidates for having studied the same or relevant discipline but under a different title. With new disciplines/fields being taught at the university level in Pakistan, there is definitely a need to realign the recruitment rules by including/adding these disciplines.

Revisiting the procedure for personal hearings

Efforts have been underway to speed up the recruitment process against ex-cadre posts. According to the procedural requirements given in the FPSC Ordinance 1977, the rejected candidates are allowed to make representations followed by personal hearings and then review petitions against Commission's decision which causes a delay of about two months. The Commission has observed that in personal hearings, every aspect of the aggrieved candidate is addressed; therefore, the provision of going through review petition given in section 7(3) (b) which may consume another one month's time, may be dispensed with. It will still be open to the candidates to approach through the High Court, if they still feel aggrieved.

Human Resource requirements and recruitment planning be timely communicated to the Commission

To speed up the recruitment process, there is a need to advise all the Ministries/Divisions/Departments to keep the Commission informed about their future Human Resource requirements and recruitment planning, on a bi-annual basis.

Commission to be on board on matters pertaining to Civil Service Reforms

The Commission should be a part of all key deliberations on the Civil Service Reforms. These recommendations aim to support merit, institutions, discipline and values in driving and sustaining high standards of governance, delivery and performance. This should enhance not just institutional excellence but also develop an integrated civil service for Pakistan.

The Commission consists of a versatile group of Members who bring both wide experience and knowledge. I am grateful to all the Member colleagues for the work they do so meticulously and for their wise advice on so many occasions.

We are also particularly grateful for the support of the Secretariat, which brings both conscientiousness and careful scrutiny to its work. They have risen to the many challenges that have been thrown at them and I am confident they will continue to do so in following years.

The Commission expresses its gratitude to the Honorable President of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan and the Government for the continued support to this institution.

Chairman

Honourable Mr. Mamnoon Hussain,

CHAPTER 1

2015: THE YEAR IN REVIEW

1.1. A constitutional body of the Government of Pakistan, the Federal Public Service Commission (FPSC) was established in 1947. The Commission carries out all recruitments on the principles enshrined in Article 27 of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973 and continues to safeguard the principles of integrity, impartiality and meritocracy. An overview of the performance of the Commission for the year 2015 is as detailed below:

1.2. The Federal Public Service Commission (FPSC) undertook various initiatives to reform the internal system to bring qualitative improvement in the structures and procedures of the Commission. For 2015, goals were set to critically examine, review and timeline the procedures and processes for recruitments against federal posts; to enhance the usage of Information Technology to increase the organization's efficiency; organizational re-structuring of the FPSC and to take measures for promotion of Urdu in official business.

1.3. Against these goals, the Commission met targets for ensuring 100% online application processing; timely holding of the Competitive Examination CSS 2015, conducting the Final Passing Out Examination for all 12 services and groups, holding of professional tests for 1886 posts, interviewed 2288 candidates for recruitment to ex-cadre posts, conducting 378 personal hearings to address the grievances of both CSS and Genneral Recruitment candidates. The Commission also remained involved in the policy reform process related to General Recruitment, Civil Services and Promotion Policy in line with the Judgment of the Supreme Court of Pakistan, Examination and amendments in the Federal Public Service Commission Ordinance, 1977 as well as framing Draft Functions Rules and Draft Conduct of Business Rules.

(Chapter 3, 4)

1.4. The Commission finalized the process of Competitive Examination-2014. Out of the 13,170 candidates that appeared in the exam, 377 candidates finally qualified. The Commission recommended 233 candidates for allocation to various Occupational Groups and Services in BS-17. The Commission processed 22,412 applications for the CSS Competitive Examination 2015, where in 12,176 candidates appeared and 379 qualified in the written examination. After the announcement of final results, 238 candidates were allocated to various services and groups. Moreover, the Commission processed 20,717 applications for CSS Competitive Examination 2016. Socio-economic performance indicators were analyzed and statistics for various research reports were generated.

1.5. The Examiners reports for CSS CE 2015 underscored the declining standard of instruction and learning in institutions of higher learning. Common weaknesses identified were candidate's shallow knowledge of subject, grammatical mistakes, inappropriate choice of vocabulary and stereotype answers. The Examiners had noted with concern that majority of the candidates did not follow the norms of confrontational discourse.

1.6. It was also observed that there was a huge difference amongst the number of candidates who applied and those who actually took the CSS exam. The Commission therefore proposed holding of a screening test so that the applications of serious candidates could be processed efficiently. Public appreciation was received for the Commission's efforts for making 100% online application system and for opening of the facilitation centre to help guide the candidates.

1.7. During 2015, the Commission processed 681,940 applications including brought forward for 3,830 posts in BS-16 and above under General (Direct) Recruitment as compared to 351,910 applications for 3260 posts in 2014. Applications to post ratio in 2015 were 178 against 108 in 2014 demonstrating high level of unemployment. 2,288 candidates were interviewed and 575 were nominated by the Commission for appointment. Due to higher number of applications and pre and post exam/test under the General recruitment, steps involved were curtailed to reduce the processing time.

(Chapter 6)

1.8. The Commission held Final Passing Out Examinations for all 12 Occupational services and groups after completion of the respective Specialized Training Program. 340 probationers took the FPOEs in 2015 against 319 probationers in 2014. The qualifying ratio in 2015 was better as 81 % passed the FPOE as compared to 59% in 2014. The syllabi and schedule of all Occupational Groups/Services for FPOE-2016 were approved by the Commission. The Commission also obtained approval of Rules, Syllabus and Scheme of Section Officers Promotional Examination-2015 for new requisition from Establishment Division. The Commission strongly recommends comprehensive review and realignment of the FPOE syllabi, training methodology and techniques. As earlier proposed to Establishment Division, the Commission re-iterates its proposal to review the entire system of training at various levels and to align the training modules to 21st century challenges and developing skills required to put up with these challenges. The Commission also administered other Competitive Examinations for appointments in Gilgit-Baltistan Judiciary and Survey of Pakistan.

(Chapter 7)

1.9. Psychological Assessment was carried out for the candidates qualifying the written part of the CSS Competitive Examination-2014 and 2015, Armed Forces Officers against civil posts and for the posts of Assistant Director in a government organization. Other proposals are also under consideration to reform and improve the method of psychological assessment, strengthening the Commission's IT services, improving the curriculum and syllabi for the posts to be filled through General (Direct) recruitment.

(Chapter 8, 9)

1.10. During this year, the Commission remained engaged with preparation of the test schemes and syllabi for 268 recruitment cases for selection against 1864 posts in BS-16 to BS-20, processed 106 cases of recognition and equivalence of qualifications and degrees in consultation with the Higher Education Commission and Pakistan Engineering Council. The Commission besides carrying out detailed analysis of CSS CE 2014 post selection data, also prepared a report on observations of the Examiners on performance of the candidates in compulsory and optional subjects under CSS CE 2014. The report included the shortcomings and recommendations of various Examiners for guidance of the aspiring candidates and is made a part of this Annual report for ready reference.

1.11. The Commission completed vetting and accorded approval to syllabi for FPOE of 12 occupational groups/services. The Commission also processed revision of syllabi of CSS competitive examination 2016 and beyond for 51 subjects in consultation with the Higher Education Commission. The Commission also processed new scheme and syllabi for Section Officers' Promotional Examination 2015.

1.12. In compliance with orders of Supreme Court of Pakistan, a committee was constituted in FPSC to implement various initiatives for promotion of Urdu as official language as well as printing and translation of important documents into Urdu. FPSC has been working in close collaboration with the National Language Authority for implementation of Urdu as official language.

1.13. In discharge of its statutory duties, the FPSC continued to advise Ministries/Divisions/Departments on service related matters. During 2015, the Commission also took note of the delay by various Ministries/Divisions/Departments in issuance of offer of appointment to the selected candidates.

(Chapter 10 and 11)

1.14. Administrative measures were also taken by the Commission to enhance the capacity of human resources and to improve the service delivery. However, budgetary constraints had been restraining the Commission in discharge of its statutory functions.

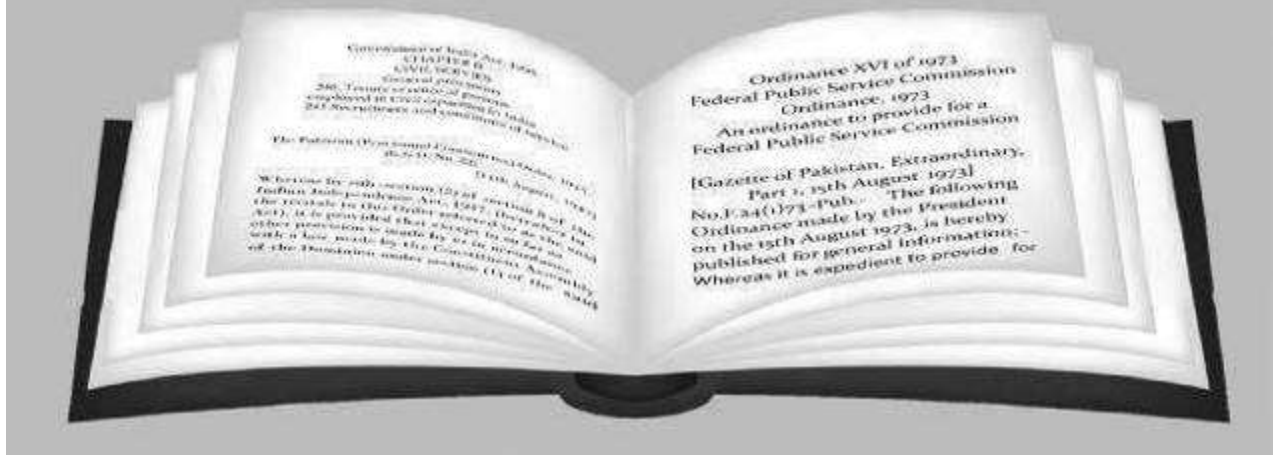

(Chapter 12)

1.15. During this year, the Commission remained engaged with the SAARC Public Service/Civil Service Commissions and provincial Public Service Commissions, Higher Education Commission, Pakistan Engineering Council, Pakistan Medical and Dental Council and represented the Commission on Selection Boards of the Federal Universities. The FPSC research publications included its Annual Report 2014 and Quarterly Newsletters.

(Chapter 13)

CHAPTER 2

HISTORY OF THE COMMISSION AND ITS FUNCTIONS

Brief History of the Commission

The first Public Service Commission was set up in South-Asian Sub-Continent on October 1, 1926 under the Chairmanship of Sir Ross Barker. It was recommended by Lord Lee Commission. The Commission was composed of five members including the Chairman, appointed for a tenure of five years, which was renewable. The demand for 'indianization' of the Civil Services by the late Quaid-e-Azam Mohammad Ali Jinnah resulted in setting up of a Federal Public Service Commission under the Government of India Act, 1935. After the independence, the Government of India Act, 1935 was adopted as Provisional Constitution of Pakistan and the functioning of the Commission also continued. The nomenclature of the Commission underwent many changes: Pakistan Public Service Commission (1947-1956); Federal Public Service Commission (1956-1962); Central Public Service Commission (1962-1972); and Federal Public Service Commission (April 1972 during Interim Constitution). The Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, 1973, also recognized the Federal Public Service Commission under its Article 242. A list of Chairmen of the Commission since 1947 is given at Appendix-2.

CHAPTER 3

RECRUITMENT SYSTEM DEVELOPMENT AND ADVICE TO THE GOVERNMENT

Governance and the Civil Service

3.1. There are new challenges every day, be it climate change, energy, food security, extremism, demographic dividend or re-birth of polio. These challenges raise highly complex issues with no simple solution. In face of such challenges a simple management response is not sufficient. As the country's demands and challenges shift, it needs different types of policy makers and professionals with a diverse range of skills and perspectives, who can form a strong team for the civil service.

3.2. It is recognized that there are civil servants that are capable of rising to this challenge but at the same time there is need to rethink policies and programs that better meet the needs. There is also a need to develop new responses and solutions to tackle today's and tomorrow's challenges. The civil servants of Pakistan need to be better equipped with skills and knowledge to handle these challenges.

3.3. Vision 2025 envisages a responsive, inclusive, transparent and accountable system of governance through adoption of a holistic approach - from policy to strategy to implementation and delivery, encompassing all administrative levels – federal and provincial. As a core component of Pakistan Vision 2025, a well-articulated strategy for the public sector was also envisioned based on the platforms of i) Reoriented and repositioned human resource ii) Deployment of new technologies and iii) Restructuring and re-engineering of institutions.

3.4. To complement these initiatives, on the human resources dimension, the Federal Public Service Commission, is constantly looking at the gaps/areas of need in the civil service. The Commission is committed to:

- (a) Strong merit based policy
- (b) Consultative process with key stakeholders on policy matters
- (c) Recruitment of the available best talent
- (d) Updating Syllabi and test schemes on contemporary footings
- (e) Strong monitoring system for output
- (f) Adoption of modern tools and technology
- (g) Access to information to general public

3.5. However, some of the challenges for the Commission are:

- (i) Outmoded rules/ procedures as recruitment rules
- (ii) Lack of motivation to join the civil service
- (iii) Understaffed human resource in the Commission
- (iv) Lack of incentives

3.6. The Commission has taken a number of initiatives to make the organization more efficient, responsive and transparent, some of which are:

- (i) Scheme, rules and syllabi of the CSS Competitive Examination: Recognizing the need to align the subjects and syllabi of CSS Examination with the emerging global trends and for netting high talent for the civil service, with the approval of the Government, FPSC revised the scheme and syllabi of CSS Competitive Examination after a long consultative process in 2015. Optional subjects have been re-grouped to tighten the loose ends which will provide level playing field to students of Natural Sciences and Social Sciences and will make the examination more competitive. The new structure and syllabus has been notified for its implementation from CSS CE-2016. According to revised scheme of 51 subjects, the aspirants of CSS Competitive Examination are required to attempt papers of 1200 marks in the compulsory and optional subjects as given in Table-1:-

(ii) Screening Test for the Competitive Examination: The number of applicants for the Competitive Examination is continuously on a rise. It has increased from 9056 applicants in CE-2009 to 22412 applicants in CE-2015. The unabated increase results in delays in completing the examination process which is already taking 18 months, compromises the objectivity in assessing the answer scripts/papers and portrays the ratio of pass candidates as low against a high ratio of failures. There has been persistent demand from all quarters, including the examiners, for holding the Preliminary Screening Test. Based on this empirical evidence and the feedback received from various quarters, the Commission proposed to hold a Screening Test or Preliminary Examination to filter out non-serious candidates applying for the Competitive Examination. The purpose was to allow only the qualifying/serious candidates to take the main written examination. The objective was to improve the quality of input for the Competitive Examination, ensure objectivity in paper assessment, fast tracking the entire process of Competitive Examination with the aim to reduce the time frame from 18 to 12 months and reduce the financial cost. India, Bangladesh and Sri Lanka amongst SAARC countries are already holding Screening Test before the main examination. Towards this end, a comprehensive Screening Test Scheme was forwarded to the Government. The proposal was submitted to the Government for approval and decision is awaited.

(iii) New scheme for Section Officers Promotional Examination: A strong recruitment policy for Section Officers' Promotional Examination has been notified. Salient features include enhancing minimum academic qualifications from Matric to Bachelor's degree, restricting maximum number of attempts to three instead of un-limited, augmenting the written examination from 4 to 7 papers, introducing psychological assessment for the candidates, extending the training period at par with the nominees of Competitive Examination and introducing Final Passing Out Examination to determine the seniority. The intent was to improve the quality of intake substantially and to strengthen the cadre in terms of efficiency and excellence. The Rules have been notified and to be effective from the forthcoming SOPE.

- (iv) Data Bank: A lot of manual work in examination system make the environment overcrowded, time consuming and cost in-effective. The Commission has taken some initiatives like in-house marking of answer sheets through Optical Mark Reader Scanners to achieve optimal level of efficiency and accuracy. The Commission is also considering developing a data bank of Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs) to set papers for different difficulty levels for Screening Tests for General Recruitment instead of relying on the external examiners only. It is expected to save time and cost in preparation of question papers and overall reduce the process of finalization of results for various posts.
- (v) Improving Pre and Post examination/test arrangements: Standard Operating Procedures for Pre and Post conduct of Examinations/Tests were updated to re-engineer and reduce delays in recruitment process, as per requirements of key stakeholders. These included: Specialized OMR scanning facility with appropriately trained HR; qualifying standard of MCQ tests for General Recruitment increase from 25% to 40%, Preliminary screening test for Competitive Examination (CSS) and proposal for centralized marking of CSS papers; exploring option for Video Conferencing facility at Provincial offices for personal hearings/interviews.
- (vi) Psychological Assessment Ranking Modules: The Psychological Assessment ranking activities administered on candidates of CSS Competition Examination, officers inducted from Armed Forces into civil posts and candidates of SOPE have been revamped, tested and fine-tuned:
 - a the battery of tests has been made more rigorous to extract the true personality traits;
 - b individual speech on the given topic by each candidate in a group has been introduced to judge the candidate's knowledge, confidence level and communication skills;
 - c for role playing exercise, candidates are now asked to identify key issues in a given situation, key players, constraints, probable solutions and to record them on a sheet of paper and;
 - d assessment report form has been comprehensively revised to give detailed assessment to facilitate the Viva Voce Board. The new form includes: personality assessment in terms of intellectual calibre, emotional stability, leadership qualities, integrity, practical ability and potential on a scale of 7. Each of these traits are further backed-up by assessment of sub- traits totalling 28. The psychological assessment report of each candidate is now more comprehensive and reflects candidate's background, personality traits, weaknesses, strengths, suitability for the civil service and future potentials. This is a continuous process and is improved as per feedback received from members of Viva Voce Board as well as the candidates.
- (vii) Automation in the Commission: The system for 100% online registration and submission of applications for General Recruitment (Direct Recruitment by Selection) and Competitive Examination with appropriate filters is functional. Information pertaining to pre-selection, admission certificates for examination/test, result of screening test, final result, marks sheet and selection of candidates for General Recruitment is provided online. There is always room for implementing technology. As such, Printing/ Photocopying of question papers, counting of question papers, making sets/ stapling of question papers, affixing serial number on question papers, counting of attempted answer sheets as received from various centres/halls, scanning of OMR sheets, verification of OMR Sheets (5%), affixing fictitious numbers on the Descriptive Answer Sheets etc. have been automated. It is hoped that this shift from manual to automated would accelerate the finalization of recruitment. Since adoption of 100% Online Application Submission System, the date of conduct of test for the advertised posts is mentioned in the consolidated advertisement. This has facilitated all the Wings and Directorates of the Commission to draw and fix timelines for pre-examination activities and has helped in efficient disposal of cases.

3.7 The Commission sent a number of proposals for seeking approval of the Government, which were under process till end of 2015:

- i. Draft Bill to further amend the FPSC Ordinance 1977
- ii. Draft FPSC (Functions) Rules 2015

- vi. Amendments in Civil Service Occupational Groups (Probation, Training and Service) Rules 1990 and Civil Service Occupational Groups (Probation, Training and Service) Rules 2003 for the Common Training Program and Specialized Training Program

3.8. Treatment of vacancies occurring after allocation: The Commission was of the view that the vacancies referred to FPSC and duly announced shall be considered for allocation and vacancies occurring after allocation shall be considered as carry forward to the next year.

3.9. Policy Regarding Provision of FPSC related information to private persons/researchers: The Commission has approved following policy regarding sharing of FPSC's data with private persons/researchers. (i) Classified information that cannot be shared (a) name, contact numbers and particulars of examiners, paper setters and external Psychologists (b) question papers/MCQ papers of the exam yet to be held (c) all question papers including MCQ/Descriptive etc. which are required to be returned by the candidates to supervisory staff at the examination centre on conclusion of the test/exam (d) written scripts/OMR sheets of the candidates of CSS/GR/other exams (e) Psychological tests, psychological group activities, psychological written/scripts/OMR sheet of candidates, psychological test results, dossiers of candidates, psychological reports, marks of Psychological Assessment of CSS/AFI/IB (f) personal/family particulars of the candidates CSS/GR/other exams. Often Ministries/Divisions/Departments regularize contract/daily wages employees without following the prescribed procedure or making a reference to the FPSC. The Commission received and processed seven such cases for regularization of services/miscellaneous appointments for retention/clarification in service during the year 2015. The particulars of these cases are at Appendix-4.

4.4. Representations/Review Petitions by the Candidates: During 2015, out of 1,178 rejected candidates, 254 filed representations against their rejection in 49 recruitment cases. Representations of 13 candidates were accepted on production of additional evidence and supporting documents, 19 were rejected on paper, whereas 222 rejected candidates were called for Personal Hearing by the Commission. Candidature of 36 petitioners was restored after personal hearing. 55 candidates submitted Review Petitions. One (1) candidate was restored and the remaining Review Petitions were dismissed having no merit. Hence out of 254 candidates who had filed representation against their rejection, candidature of 50 (19.7%) was restored by the Commission as detailed at Appendix-5.

4.5. Conduct of Personal Hearing in Competitive Examination: In terms of section 7 of FPSC Ordinance 1977, 103 candidates rejected in CSS Competitive Examination 2015 were accorded Personal Hearing by the Commission at Islamabad, Peshawar, Lahore and Karachi.

4.6. COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION

5.1. Pursuant to the Section 7 of the Federal Public Service Commission Ordinance, 1977, the Federal Public Service Commission is empowered to conduct tests and examinations for recruitment to civil services. The Central Superior Services (CSS) Competitive Examination is conducted by the Commission once a year.

5.2. The competitive examination for recruitment of Basic Pay Scale 17 posts carries credibility of a merit based, open and fair selection process conducted through the Commission which also enjoys reputation of an impartial recruiting agency. The Commission conducts examination for the following Occupational Groups and Services:

- (i) Commerce & Trade Group (CTG)
- (ii) Foreign Service of Pakistan (FSP)
- (iii) Information Group (IG)
- (iv) Inland Revenue Service (IRS)
- (v) Military Lands & Cantonments Group (MLCG)
- (vi) Office Management Group (OMG)
- (vii) Pakistan Administrative Service (PAS)

5.3. Currently, the spectrum of examination system covers the registration, eligibility criteria, written examination, medical examination, psychological assessment and viva voce/Interview. Reflecting on the last five years trend, Tables 8 indicates the increase in number of applications for the CSS CE to almost double but at the same time almost 50 % of applicants do not appear in the exam. This huge gap calls for an initial screening test prior to CSS CE to screen out non serious candidates. The table also reflects gradual decline in pass percentage from 7.83% in CE 2012 to 3.02 % in CE 2015. Over the last five years, most popular choice of subjects has been Journalism, Psychology and Sociology. As indicated in Table 9, over 50 % of the candidates opted for these subjects whereas Geology, Chemistry, Applied

Mathematics, Pure Mathematics and Botany remained the least popular subjects with hardly 1% of candidates taking the exam in each of these subjects as reflected in Table 10.

5.26. Candidates' Performance in Relation to Previous Occupation: Table 27 (Figure 9) indicates that 69% of the candidates who appeared in CE-2014 were previously unemployed. Of them, 31% qualified the exam and of this percentage, 39% were allocated to various groups/services. Details of candidates with previous work experience and performance in the CSS CE is tabulated in Table 27.

5.27. Candidates' Performance in Compulsory Subjects: Table 28 indicates candidates' performance in compulsory subjects. The performance of the candidates in GK-I (Everyday Science) during CE- 2014 was better than the last year and 64% of the qualified candidates secured 60% and above marks. Performance in Islamiat, and GK-III (Pakistan Affairs) was also satisfactory. Conversely, in Essay and English (Precise & Composition) only 1% of the qualified candidates could get 60% or above marks. A vast majority of the qualified candidates remained in the bracket of 40% to 59% marks.

5.28. Candidates' Performance in Pre-Familiar and Non-Familiar Optional Subjects:

Table 29 informs that a significant number of candidates without any pre-familiarity with the optional subjects, have scored 60% or above marks in the subjects of Agriculture, Arabic, Business Administration Forestry, Geography, History of USA, Muslim Law and Jurisprudence, Psychology, Punjabi, Pashto and Sociology. It indicates that selection of optional subjects was highly random. Due to enough flexibility in subject groupings, large number of candidates opted for a high score subject combination. The choice of the subject was primarily driven by the criteria whether it was scoring or not and not for any prior familiarity with the subject. During the viva voce/interviews, it was quite evident in many cases that those candidates who had not studied the subjects at academic level, lacked good comprehension of the discipline hence below average performance.

5.29. Correlation of Father's Education with Candidates' Performance: Table 30 (Figure 10) reflects that candidates' performance in the examination was positively correlated with their father's educational background. Of 59 percent of the candidates allocated under CSS CE 2014, the father held a graduate, post-graduate or professional degree while 32 percent were intermediate or below and 3 percent were uneducated.

5.31. Correlation of Candidates' Performance to Family Annual Income: Overwhelming candidates (52%) who appeared in CE-2014 belonged to family whose annual income was below Rs 600,000. Of them many included whose family income was Rs 50,000 per month. Whereas 45% of candidates allocated to the Occupational Groups and Services were from the same income group. It indicates that predominately the candidates from the middle class form part of civil service. Details as per Table 32 and Fig. 12.

5.32. Observations of Examiners on Performance of Candidates in CSS-CE 2014: The CSS 2014 examination assessment reports underscored the following observations on the candidates' performance in compulsory and optional papers:

A. Compulsory Subjects

English Essay: Question paper was set to evaluate the performance of the candidates in terms of their conceptual, linguistic and writing competencies, but common trends observed were lack of conceptual clarity, shallow knowledge of subject, grammatical mistakes, inappropriate choice of vocabulary and stereotype answers. Majority of the candidates did not follow the norms of confrontational discourse and wrote isolated sentences rather than in cohesive paragraphs. The ability required in CSS is extensive reading, holistic and appreciable performance approach in the subject but majority lacked these characteristics.

GK-II (Current Affairs): The candidates had good knowledge of the current issues but the expression was poor. The ranking accorded to the answer scripts was: 75% - below average, 18%- satisfactory, 5%-good and 2%-exceptionally good. There was a non-serious element and stereo style writing persisted. Only a few candidates made constructive suggestions in the best interest of the country. Our educational institutions must promote teaching of values and ethics.

GK-III (Pakistan Affairs): The knowledge and performance of the candidates in expression, concepts, construction and usage of the tenses was good in only 5% of the total, while 95% candidates performed as below as secondary school level and their answers did not meet the demand of the questions. Guide book based answers, crammed up information and deceiving by writing only questions on the answer sheets to fill pages with irrelevant stories was generally observed in this subject.

B. Optional Subjects

Applied Mathematics-I: Performance of majority of the candidates remained poor. Only few candidates performed well. Specific deficiency was observed in use of proper techniques in solving mathematical problems. The Examiner recommended practice and consultation from standard books like Introduction to Mechanics by Q. K. Ghori, Vector Analysis by Shaum's outline series and Mathematical Physics by H. K. Dass for appropriate preparation of this subject.

Applied Mathematics-II: General performance of the candidates was not up to the mark. Only 44% qualified, while 56% failed in the subject. Even out of 56%, 65% candidates got zero or single digit marks. Most of the candidates had no ability to attempt the paper and lacked basic knowledge. Section-B of the Question Paper was ignored by majority of the candidates. In Q. No. 6, 7 candidates could not secure good marks as there seemed to be absence of knowledge on application of method. The Examiner recommended that candidates opting for Applied Mathematics must prepare according to outline of recommended syllabus for C.E.

Arabic-II: Performance of the candidates in Arabic Language Paper remained average. A significant number of candidates had prepared for limited and selective topics from syllabus and tried to fit the same in every answer. Answers were based on rote learning rather than proper understanding. The questions on poetry, Q. No. 6, 7 were attempted by only 5% of the candidates with poor and wrong translation, whereas 95% left these questions through the choice benefit. Excellent answers were given in response to Q.No.5 and those who attempted the same secured highest marks in this paper. Examiner was of the view that option of attempting in second language as Urdu language may benefit the candidates to understand similar terminologies in Arabic as well as Urdu. Consulting one good resource/book on Arabic Literature & History was recommended.

Agriculture: Overall performance of the candidates was satisfactory. Only a few candidates with sound knowledge of the subject and good expression did well. A significant number of candidates could not score well due to poor expression in English language and superficial knowledge of the subject. Without understanding of the questions, the candidates focussed on writing maximum number of pages which was neither required nor relevant. To perform better, the candidates must have in-depth study of the subject and clarity of concepts.

Accountancy and Auditing Paper-I: Deficiencies in the scripts included over-writing, cutting, irrelevant answers, poor comprehension and attempting the question without basic knowledge of the topic. The candidates must differentiate between the terms; final accounts and company accounts, operating ratio and operating profit ratio, classification of items under operating, investing and financing activities rather than operating items under financing activities. In depreciation question, candidates prepared balance sheets and made entries. Majority of the candidates were unable to calculate figures like credit, purchase, sales and cash in hand in single entry system. Last question about preparation of profit and loss accounts of Commercial Banks as per banking laws in Pakistan was attempted by candidates without proper arrangement of figures or proper headings.

Botany-I: The overall performance of the candidates was very poor, hopeless and disappointing. Only a few candidates performed well. The Examiner observed that knowledge of classical Botany seems to be diminishing, which was quite alarming and was leading to obsolescence of the subject. The scripts showed that candidates had no knowledge of the subject terminologies i.e. Algae, Smut Fungus, Anatomy, Vascular plants, System of classification of plants and Anomalous etc. The scripts showed the answers of most of the candidates were not based on any scientific knowledge. The Examiner recommended that initiatives must be taken to bring quality education in the country and discourage culture of private academies. Further adding that initial scrutiny of the candidates should be done before appearance for final examination.

Botany-II: Most of the candidates were ignorant of the common practice of writing question numbers on answer sheets. With few exceptions, overall knowledge of the candidates was superficial.

Chemistry-I: Majority of candidates could not secure 50% marks while others secured less than 25% marks. Poor expression, dearth of knowledge, grammatical mistakes and writing irrelevant answers were some of the main reasons for low performance in the subject. The Examiner suggested preliminary examination based on MCQs, as a qualifying round, before the final CSS CE. It was strongly recommended to ensure quality result.

Chemistry-II: The overall performance of the candidates was average.

European History I & II: The performance of the candidates needs improvement in the areas like written expression, English language and in-depth knowledge of the subject. Logical reasoning and analysis was missing in the answer scripts. Majority of the candidates provided narration of facts and not analytical explanation of the events.

Economics: A significant majority of the candidates was not well prepared for the subject. Mostly the candidates attempted questions providing irrelevant details. A vast majority was unable to explain terms like relative poverty and absolute poverty, difference between balance of trade and balance of payments. Only a few candidates knew the concept of agricultural price policy. There was a confused response to the question on characteristics of collective and cooperative farming.

Forestry: General performance in terms of ability to read, understand and answer the questions was found to be below average. The candidates were unable to synthesize their knowledge into proper expression. The Examiner observed that the school/college/universities must not become the certificates/degree awarding institutes but to groom the students to the level which reflects better standard of baseline education in Pakistan.

Geography-I: Knowledge of 50% of the candidates in Geography was poor. Candidates did not know basic Geography at school/college level. Only a few candidates having good knowledge of Geography attempted the questions fairly well with proper maps and diagrams and amongst the high scorers.

Geography-II: The performance of the candidates remained unsatisfactory. Out of 3089, only 20 candidates secured 60% & above marks, 1210(39%) got between 44-59% marks, 1761(57%) obtained between 33-44% marks and 98(3%) candidates failed in the subject. The Examiner opined that candidates must have thorough knowledge of basic concepts of Geography. The Examiner noted with concern that a number of questions were attempted poorly and half-heartedly. It was urged that educational institutes must teach with help of visual presentation of maps and diagrams.

Geology-I: Most of the candidates who opted for the subject had no prior background or formal training in the subject. The answers were based on superficial information. The Examiner recommended that the option for the subject must be limited to the candidates who have studied it at least at graduation level.

Geology-II: About 91.49% candidates passed the Paper and nearly 8.51% acquired less than 33% marks. Nearly 32% candidates performed in good to very good category. A significant number of candidates had poor understanding of the subject. Questions related to geophysical, geotechnical and geothermal gradients were not answered up to the mark. Question related to Chromite deposit of Muslim Bagh were attempted by only two candidates. Handwriting of 17% candidates was poor. The Examiner emphasized that candidates must concentrate on more legible handwriting writing and better preparation of the subject. The Examiner recommended that Universities and other degree awarding institutes should emphasize on manner and answering skills for the examinations.

History of USA: The general performance of candidates in this subject was at mediocre level while a vast majority relied on guides books rather than recommended reading material. Main deficiencies in the paper were lack of analysis and integration. Candidates performed weak in questions for which written material was difficult to get by. The Examiners urged the candidates to study standard texts on USA History rather than cheap material or small pamphlets.

History of Pak & India-I: The performance of the candidates has been deteriorating over the years. The candidates who performed well were due to their power of memorization. The common weaknesses were inability to express satisfactorily in English, basic language and grammar mistakes, no power of analysis, and lack of sequence or proper flow of thought. Majority of the candidates attempted first two questions in a satisfactory way but insufficient length and inadequate answers to last two questions reduced their marks considerably. Questions required analysis rather than narration of facts. Analysis was poor. The Examiner had emphasized that candidates must study books that were more analytical than descriptive and not to consult guide books.

History of Pak & India-II: Only 10% of the candidates understood History, 5% could cover view of contemporary situations and 0.5% had a vision to look into future, an ability, potential and art of translations of history. The expression in the scripts conveyed that religious intolerance and sectarian extremism had an adverse impact on thinking of the candidates. Only 1% candidates produced reasonable, academic and historical material. The Examiner recommended that essentially filtration process is pre-requisite to eliminate non-serious candidates.

Islamic History & Culture-I: The knowledge, expression and performance of the candidates was below average. Only 5% of the total candidates provided intelligent and analytical answers. One fourth of the candidates attempted the paper half-heartedly and answers were based on general information without going into specific or relevant details. Question relating to last sermon and its impact was attempted with sketchy information, without deriving any conclusion. Other questions relating to Umayyad dynasty and measures taken by Abbasids were attempted without any sound analysis.

Islamic History & Culture-II: The overall result was very poor. Only 6.6% passed the examination. There were issues related to expression in English language. Analytical sense was also absent.

International Law: The overall performance of the candidates was disappointing. The evaluation of the answer scripts reflected that the candidates did not have command over English language. Specifically, due to lack of understanding of questions, the candidates were unable to clarify the concepts or to provide relevant answers. A significant majority did not refer to International law cases and were unaware of the development of international law. The Examiner recommended for setting a qualifying standard for competitive exam to avoid non serious attitude.

International Relations: A large number of candidates opted for the subject but without any previous academic background in the same discipline. It was observed that answer sheets were filled either with irrelevant facts or stories. There was also undue focus on making outlines for answers and giving only headings. Many answers were based on information gathered from media debates. 80% of the candidates failed to comprehend the questions relating to core aspects of the subject. Despite all these deficiencies, 20% of the candidates performed very well and 5% attempted the paper exceptionally well. Q.No. 2, 3 & 5 were attempted poorly, consequently majority of the candidates failed to provide required knowledge/facts and analysis. The Examiner viewed that the private coaching academies were not providing appropriate service to the aspiring candidates.

Journalism: Majority of the candidates failed to understand the questions asked in the paper. Application of modern journalism and mass communication theories were missing in the answer scripts. Most of the candidates attempted the subject without any prior academic knowledge of the subject. The trend of opting the questions relating to role of media playing in our system today was reflective of the inability of the candidates to understand the intricate nature of media related issues as the responses lacked theoretical perspective to evaluate any media problem. Q.No. 2, 6 & 7 were attempted with maturity and sensitivity towards politics and Q.No. 8 relating to short notes on some popular terms was poorly attempted and less than 1% of candidates could answer it properly. The Examiner recommended that the candidates must consult the prescribed reading material/books for better understanding of the subject.

Law-I: The standard of performance in Law Papers has been deteriorating. Questions were not followed properly and lengthy answers were given reflecting irrelevancy and repetition. The Examiner recommended increase in number of Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs).

Law-II: The knowledge of candidates was very shallow in the subject. Q.2, 3 & 8 were attempted very poorly. An element of applied knowledge was missing and majority of the candidates avoided the use of Case Law.

Mercantile Law: Most of the candidates attempted questions having no knowledge of the topics, improper citation of precedents, with no knowledge of basic law on arbitration or contract. The Examiner recommended that the candidates must consult original books instead of using guide books for better performance in the subject.

Persian: A significant number of candidates appeared in the examination without any preparation of Persian language and literature. The performance was poor in essay writing. The Examiner was of the view that candidates must possess a sound knowledge of political, social and cultural background of Persian language and literature, particularly new streams of thoughts, concepts and notions in contemporary literature, events in Iran and the Subcontinent.

Philosophy-I: Evaluation of 176 answer scripts revealed that only 47 candidates obtained 60% and above marks, 80 candidates secured marks between 59-44% and remaining failed in the subject. Overall performance of the candidates was good but improvement is required in narration of facts, analysis, English language, vocabulary and handwriting.

Philosophy-II: The standard attained by the candidates was better as compared to previous years. The candidates appearing through 4-years course/program had a pre-dominant good performance. The Examiner underscored that candidates must concentrate on thrust of the questions. It was observed that English as a medium of instruction and communication continues to be a weak link.

Physics-I: The assessment of 314 answer scripts concluded performance of the candidates as satisfactory but not up to the mark. Majority of the candidates attempted questions without giving any introduction and finished without any conclusion. The main difficulty was in solving the numerical, particularly in solving differential and integral calculus. Only 5% of the candidates could attempt with proper understanding of the questions and responded with the correct and relevant answers whereas the remaining provided irrelevant answers. Q. No. 7 and 8 relating to Thermodynamics and Optics were attempted very poorly.

Physics-II: The candidates did not prepare well for the subject. Majority produced cramped material which was also irrelevant. There was lack of conceptual clarity and proper understanding of numerical questions.

Public Administration: The overall performance of the candidates was not satisfactory. Most of the candidates had not studied Public Administration at any level. The answer sheets were filled with irrelevant material/answers. For better results, the candidates must avoid such non-serious attitude.

Punjabi: Examination of the answer scripts conveyed that candidates had not gone through the whole syllabus or the recommended books and therefore the performance was not satisfactory. The responses of the candidates were based on guidebooks.

Pure Mathematics-I: General performance of the candidates was not up to the mark, only 9% of the total candidates were able to qualify, while 91% failed in the subject. Many candidates had no ability to attempt as per required method and lacked basic knowledge of the subject. The Examiner was of the view that candidates must pursue the syllabus fully from local as well as foreign authors.

Pure Mathematics-II: 53 candidates appeared in this paper, only 06 passed the paper and 20 candidates secured zero marks. Performance of the candidates was poor as there was lack of understanding of the questions. It was seen that candidates had not done proper practice.

Statistics: The candidates performed poorly in analyzing the mathematical and numerical questions as they lacked practice. Statistics is a technical subject and cannot be dealt as fiction or history. The candidates must emphasize on practicing the mathematical/numerical portion of the subject.

Urdu: The candidates neither produced good responses nor arranged the information in a systematic way. Some of the candidates expressed their literary knowledge with critical thoughts, but lacked in academic curiosity and literary development. Q.2, 3 & 4 were attempted without proper understanding of the questions. The Examiner observed that candidates must emphasize on critical readings and literary history so as to utilize this knowledge as per demand of the questions in a transparent language.

Zoology: Answer scripts presented quite a dismal picture. Around 10% could be rated as excellent and a larger percentage as hopeless. There was a considerable number of above and below average scores of the candidates. Below average candidates could not attempt the questions comprehensively and lacked the writing skills. The Examiner recommended that the candidates must consult quality and referable text material written by foreign authors instead of guide books.

Therefore, the Commission must safeguard its credibility sternly against such efforts.

CHAPTER 7

FINAL PASSING OUT AND PROMOTIONAL EXAMINATIONS

Final Passing Out Examination

7.1. The Commission conducts Final Passing Out Examination (FPOE) for every group/service after completion of Common Training Program and Specialized Training Program (STP) of the probationary officers recruited through the CSS Competitive Examination. This examination is of considerable importance as inter-se seniority of the Probationers in each Occupational Group and Service is determined on the sum of marks obtained in the Competitive Examination, Initial Training, Specialized Training and FPOE. Currently, the rules provide four attempts to qualify the FPOE failing which the Probationer is liable to be discharged from Group/Service. The FPOEs conducted by the Commission during 2015 are reflected in Table 35.

Table 35. Summary of FPOEs conducted During 2014

S.No	Service & Occupational Group	Appeared	Pass	Fail
(i)	Commerce & Trade Group	04	04	--
(ii)	Foreign Service of Pakistan	27	27	--
(iii)	Inland Revenue Service	78	56	22

(xii)	Railways (C & T) Group	11	09	02

7.2. The assessment of data provided by the Civil Services Academy informed that the performance of a significant number of probationary officers during the common training program remained average. CSA also highlighted the problematic areas that included attitudinal issues and lack of motivation for training. In this context the Commission felt the need for revisiting the training methodology and modules and urged the Establishment Division for appropriate measures.

7.3. It was also noted with concern that the Probationers did not take the FPOE seriously. Since the rules allowed passing the FPOE in four attempts, the probationers followed a casual approach and lost the spirit of competitiveness at the very beginning of their careers. The Government has already been advised by the Commission to amend the Occupational Groups and Services (Probation, Training and Seniority) Rules, 1990, to reduce the number of attempts to two, as was originally envisaged. The Commission is also reviewing the setting of papers for the FPOE particularly open book exams. It is considered that exam should be more analytical to test the knowledge to handle issues / challenges on the pattern of case studies.

7.4. Since the training methodology and techniques required comprehensive review and realignment, the Commission proposed to the Establishment Division to review the entire system of training at various levels including faculty and to align the training modules for developing skills to meet the challenges of 21st century. The Commission also proposed to constitute a Committee for the purpose. The response of the training academies and Establishment Division has not been so forthcoming in this regard.

7.5. Section Officers Promotional Examination-2015: The Commission in its 151st meeting constituted a Committee, comprising of Mr. Abdul Wajid Rana and Mr. Naguibullah Malik, Members of the Commission, to look into improving and updating the syllabi for SOPE. The same were also shared with the Establishment Division for approval before notification. Rules and Syllabus for SOPE-2015 were notified vide SRO 418 (I)/2015 on 18.05.2015.

Other Competitive Examination-2015:

7.6. The Commission announced final result of 07 (open merit=06, women quota=01) posts of Civil Judge-cum-Judicial Magistrate (BS-18) in Gilgit-Baltistan Judiciary. Out of 28 written qualified candidates, only 22 candidates finally qualified after interview and nomination of 07 candidates was issued on 11.12.2015.

7.7. Competitive Examination for 04 posts of Assistant Director (BS-17), Survey of Pakistan, was held from 31.10.2015 to 06.11.2015. Out of 540 candidates, 108 candidates appeared in the examination.

Positive correlation was computed among these three modes of assessment;
- (c) Inter correlation co-efficient were also computed between three ability tests and different modes of Assessment i.e. Written, Psychological and Viva-Voce to ensure their utility as significant component of a battery in future;
- (d) Norms which serves as a scientific base for identifying candidate's position on certain test are regularly developed and updated. In this connection nation and domicile-wise norms of three ability tests used in CE-2014 were computed. A separate norm of Psychological marks, Viva-Voce marks and written marks of CE-2014 candidates were also developed for the purpose;
- (e) Six "two way tables" of three ability tests and between Psychological Marks vs Viva-Voce, written vs Viva-Voce, written versus merit order were computed;

Some of the information that was provided helped to guide the assessment process.

8.8. Conduct of Psychological Assessment of Armed Forces Officers (Local) Balochistan for induction in BS-18 Civil Service: A special Psychological Assessment of AFO (Armed Forces Officers) of (Local) Balochistan was conducted. - (b) The matters, if any, on which the Commission ought to have been consulted but was not consulted, and reasons thereof;

11.2. In discharge of its statutory responsibilities, the FPSC continued to advise Ministries/ Divisions/ Departments on service related matters. During the previous years, as indicated in Appendix 4, a few cases came to the notice of the Commission where its advice was not accepted or where the Commission ought to have been consulted but was not consulted. Such action of the Ministries/ Divisions/ Departments tend to compromise the process of fair selection and undermine effectiveness of Commission. The glaring examples of this violation includes: (a) mass scale regularization of contract employees in BS-16 and above; and (b) extension of contract against posts falling within the purview of the Commission beyond two years.

11.3. Cases where delay occurred in implementing Advice of the Commission: The Federal Government has laid down specific instructions that after receipt of recommendations from the Commission, the offer of appointment to the Commission's nominees should be issued within one month. However, these instructions are, some time, not complied with and the sponsoring Ministries/Divisions/Departments violate these orders without sound justification. During the year 2015, various Ministries/ Divisions/ Departments delayed the issuance of offer of appointment to the selected candidates and details are given at Appendix-16.

ADMINISTRATION AND FINANCE

12.1. The Organogram of the Commission is at Appendix-3. The Commission and staff strength is at Appendix-3A. 12.2. Annual Budget: The Ministry of Finance allocated Rs 526 millions for the Budget of FPSC for financial year 2015-16. It was distributed amongst FPSC HQs and Provincial/Regional Offices located at Lahore, Karachi, Peshawar, Quetta, Multan, Sukkur, D.I.Khan and Gilgit. Head wise budget provision is at Table 36.

12.3. The fundamental responsibility of the Commission is to hold Competitive Examination for recruitment to All-Pakistan Services and Civil Services of the Federation as well as selection by General (Direct) Recruitment for the civil posts in connection with the affairs of the Federation in BS-16 and above. Its operational budget is meant to hold these examinations throughout the year. However, this budget is generally subject to austerity cut of 20 to 30% by the Finance Division which is impeding the Commission to discharge its statutory functions. Despite strenuous efforts on part of the Commission, it continued to be restrained financially by the Finance Division during FY 2014-15. These restraints were hurdle in the way of advertising the posts, inviting applications, holding tests and examinations of the potential candidates. Resultantly it not only adds to unemployment but also frustrates the fresh graduates. It is for these reasons; the Commission has very strongly proposed in the Draft Bill for amendment in the FPSC Ordinance that the expenditure of the Commission be declared as "Charged Expenditure" rather than "Voted Expenditure".

12.4. Receipts of the Commission: Total receipts on account of fee deposited by candidates for Competitive Examination and General Recruitment for posts in BS-16 and above during Financial Year 2015-16 were Rs.110 millions against the budgetary target of Rs.27 millions.

12.5. Expenditures: Total expenditures incurred during FY2014-15 were Rs. 530.193 millions, as detailed at Table 37.

The ceremony was attended by the Chairman, Secretary and Senior Officers of the Commission. Chairman-FPSC, General (R) Niaz Muhammad Khan Khattak, HI(M) planted a tree and emphasized such activities to continue.
