Press Release

Final Result CSS Competitive Examination-2025

The Federal Public Service Commission is pleased to announce the final result of CSS-2025. CSS examination remains one of the most competitive selection examinations in the country for thousands of young aspirants who seek to serve the nation through civil services of Pakistan.

2. A total of 12792 candidates appeared in the written examination, 355 passed and 170 got allocations in accordance with the available vacancies and national quota system. List of candidates who qualified the examination and detail statistics are at Annex-A. Utilizing CSS competitive examination platform, Federal Government through FPSC provides equal opportunities to all the aspirants. Female candidates have performed exceptionally well as is evident from the result. A specially enabled (Blind) candidate secured overall second merit position and got allocated to prestigious Pakistan Administrative Service (PAS).

3. The FPSC extends heartfelt congratulations to the successful candidates who have secured allocations in various occupational groups and hopes that they will uphold the highest standards of integrity, professionalism and public service.

4. At the same time, FPSC acknowledges the efforts of those who despite qualifying the examination could not get allocation due to limited number of vacancies. Their achievement of passing the CSS Competitive examination reflects their hard work and potential. The Commission encourages them to remain steadfast and do not lose hope.

5. The Federal Public Service Commission re-affirms its commitments to ensuring transparency, merit and equal opportunities to select best candidates for public service.
